Start planning your cultural heritage experience in Australia . . .

Greater Blue Mountains Day Trip

The Greater Blue Mountains World Heritage Area tour will be offered on two different days allowing delegates to experience Aboriginal culture, outstanding natural heritage, and significant cultural sites within this million hectare World Heritage Area on Sydney's doorstep.

Pre and Post Tours & Exclusive Qantas Travel Discount

Delegates will have the opportunity to enjoy pre and post tours to cultural heritage places throughout Australia. We will be releasing information about the launch of the tours with our exclusive travel discount, in partnership in Qantas, in the coming months.

Side Events

The Side Events program has been crafted to deliver a myriad of exciting and informative options to maximise a holistic GA2023 experience. There will be more than 40 optional events, with some available to book online during your registration – and more will be added later this year and in early 2023.

Additional information on the Great Blue Mountains Day Trip, Pre and Post Tours, Travel discounts and new Side Events will progressively be made available on the GA2023 website. Super Early Bird registrants will be notified and have the ‘first chance’ to book when these additional activity and travel bookings open later in 2022.

In the meantime, you can express your interest via the registration form to receive the latest updates!

Financial support

As in past years, eligible registrants will be able to apply for financial support from the ICOMOS Victoria Falls/Mosi-oa-Tunya Fund. General information on the Fund is available on the ICOMOS website. Details on how to apply will be available on the GA2023 website and circulated to registered participants in coming months.
