

First Name	Last Name	Award Year	Project Aim
Trischa	Baff	2019	The Park Family Churchill Fellowship to investigate best practices in heritage trade training for Australia and establish a trainer exchange - UK, New Zealand
Brian	Maxwell	2013	The James Love Churchill Fellowship to study plaster conservation methods and materials to raise the standard of conservation in culturally significant buildings - UK, Ireland, Italy
Kenneth	Horrigan	2009	To research the application of environmental ratings systems and energy efficiency measures to heritage buildings - Canada, U.K., USA
Amy Louise	Jarvis	2018	To advance the celebration and conservation of the mid-century modern heritage of Canberra - USA
Melissa	Marshall	2002.2	To study innovative conservation techniques and strategies for rock art, as well as the sites and landscapes containing them - USA, Portugal, Spain, France
Andrew	Viduka	2002.1	To survey methods used by conservation laboratories that specialise in the treatment of wet archaeological artefacts - USA, Canada, Denmark, Sweden, U.K.
David	Gole	2000	To undertake specialist training in the conservation of architectural heritage and historic structures - Italy
Robin	Campbell	1977	To undertake the diploma course in Conservation Studies at the Institute of Advanced Architectural Studies - USA
Gerry	Cummins	2002.1	To study methods of repainting shattered heritage stained glass - USA, France
George	Chaloupka	1983	To study prehistoric rock paintings in India and in the Franco-Cantabrian region of Europe (Spain and France) and to visit institutions concerned with rock art research and conservation - India, Spain, France
Edwina	Jans	2002.1	To assess museum education services and intellectual access for audiences with specific needs - USA, U.K.
Helen	Temple	1985	To study conservation policy and project management of historic sites with particular reference to those involving contract archaeology - UK, USA
Caroline	Butler-Bowdon	2017	To investigate the best new global models of visitor accessibility and experience at heritage sites - UK, Denmark, USA, Canada