

INVITATION TO CONTRIBUTE TO

THE AUSTRALIA ICOMOS HERITAGE TOOLKIT

Dear Australia ICOMOS Member

Your personal contribution to the updated Australia ICOMOS Heritage Toolkit is now invited!

The Australia ICOMOS Heritage Toolkit consists of web-links to online heritage resources. The aim of the Toolkit is to provide members, practitioners, academicians, policy makers and students access to a centralized database of information about the conservation of heritage in Australia and beyond. The Toolkit is based on an initiative of Sheridan Burke for the International Scientific Committee on 20th Century Heritage.

The AICOMOS Heritage Toolkit can be accessed at <http://australia.icomos.org/publications/australia-icomos-heritage-toolkit/>

We invite you all to NOMINATE UP TO A MAXIMUM OF 5 WEB-LINKS to websites or pdfs of key documents that YOU use in your daily professional/academic lives, references that you feel other members and practitioners would find useful. Your personal recommendation will be quoted as a reference source.

Please help in making this initiative an ongoing success! A quick email using the format below to the Australia ICOMOS Secretariat at austicomos@deakin.edu.au will be welcome.

Australia ICOMOS is also happy consider the creation of new subject headings for the AI Heritage Toolkit, or to review the title of the subject headings. Please email the Australia ICOMOS Secretariat at austicomos@deakin.edu.au with your suggestions.

Please note that changes to the AI Heritage Toolkit must be approved by the Australia ICOMOS Executive Committee or its delegate. New listings and other changes may take up a month or two to occur.

Warm regards

Elizabeth Vines,
President, Australia ICOMOS

MY CONTRIBUTION TO AUSTRALIA ICOMOS HERITAGE TOOLKIT

Title of the Publication/Guideline/Webpage:

Author(s)/Editor(s), Organization, Year:

Suggested AICOMOS Toolkit Main Topic Heading/s:

Brief Description of the benefits of this web-link (Maximum 2 sentences):

Web Link:

Document Size in KB or MB (if link is direct to a pdf):

Full Name of contributing Australia ICOMOS member:

Please send your contribution to the AI Secretariat at austicomos@deakin.edu.au

THANK YOU FOR YOUR INPUT!