

Seminar Series

Archaeology, Museums & Heritage

Join the Sydney Archaeology community for their Semester 2 2019 seminar series on museums, heritage, and archaeology.

When

Friday, from 16 August 2019
4.00 – 5.00pm

Where

Refectory (H113)
Main Quadrangle
University of Sydney

Seminars will be followed by conversation and casual drinks at the Forest Lodge Hotel (Flodge)

For more information contact:

Agata Calabrese
agata.calabrese@sydney.edu.au

Lorraine Leung
llei4057@uni.sydney.edu.au

Alix Thoeming
alix.thoeming@sydney.edu.au

Katherine Woo
kwoo5076@sydney.edu.au

Simon Wyatt-Spratt
simon.wyatt-spratt@sydney.edu.au

Dr Sarah Kelloway (USYD) Friday 16 August

International Pots of Mystery: using PXRF spectroscopy to provenance botijas from 16th century sites on Peru's north coast.

Dr Patrick Faulkner (USYD) Friday 23 August

Intertidal foraging and historical ecology in the Mafia Archipelago, eastern Africa.

Dr Stanley Serafin (UNSW) Friday 30 August

Bioarchaeological insights into the Classic to Postclassic transformation of Mayan civilisation.

Dr Seppi Lehner (USYD) Friday 06 September

The Cape Gelidonya Shipwreck Project and maritime culture at the end of the Bronze Age.

Denis Gojak (USYD) Friday 13 September

Unmasking secret visitors: challenging pseudoarchaeology in Australia.

Matt Poll (USYD) Friday 20 September

TBC.

Michael Rampe (Pedestal 3D) Friday 27 September

Sites and stories - digital heritage frontiers.

Dr Jamie Fraser (USYD) Friday 04 October

The archaeology of olive oil: new excavations at Khirbet Ghozlan, Jordan.

Dr Erin Sebo (Flinders) Friday 11 October

'The most important day in the history of the National Museum of Ireland': the discovery and conservation of the Faddan More Psalter.

Dr Gwendolyn Hyslop (USYD) Friday 18 October

Millet, buckwheat, and the spread of Tibeto-Burman languages into the Eastern Himalayas.

Caitlin Allen (USYD) Friday 25 October

Grounding the City: the role of archaeological sites in contemporary urban life.

Dr Tim Owen (GML Heritage) Friday 01 November

Flint, ballast, and tools. A new story in Sydney's record of stone.