

The National Trust of Australia (Tasmania) in association with APT Australia Chapter

After Macquarie - Conserving Heritage Places – Evidence, Fabric and Method.

Kathleen Menzies Room, Clarendon, 234 Clarendon Station Road, Nile via Evandale

Symposium Program (at 12.04.10)

9.00am	Opening	Chris Tassell
9.15am	The Colonial Tradition	Prof Miles Lewis
9.45pm	Tasmania's Macquarie Heritage	Ian Boersma
10.15am	Colonial Gardens & Landscapes	Colleen Morris
3.30pm	Coffee
11.15am	'Homes of the Cox family in New South Wales and Tasmania: a generational shift'	Prof Ian Jack
11.45am	Growing up in a colonial house	Mary Ramsay
12.15am	Walk around Clarendon Outbuildings
12.45pm	LUNCH
1.30pm	Inspection inside Clarendon House
2.00pm	Conserving the Macquarie Legacy – a fabric-based view	Dr Donald Ellsmore
2.30pm	Macquarie's Obelisk-observations on the decay	Elisha Long
3.00pm	Disasters in Building Conservation: ten things to avoid	David Young OAM
3.30pm	Afternoon Tea
4.00pm	Colonial Furniture and Furnishings	Warwick Oakman
4.30pm	Papier Mache at Clarendon	Prof Miles Lewis
5.00pm	Conclusion & close

Symposium Presenters

Ian Boersma	Conservation architect and State Works Manager, Heritage Tasmania
Dr Donald Ellsmore	Heritage consultant & educator. Convenor of the APT Australia Chapter
Prof Ian Jack	Associate Professor, Department of History, University of Sydney.
Prof Miles Lewis	International authority on Australian architectural history.
Elisha Long	Heritage architect, Heritage Branch, NSW
Colleen Morris	Landscape and garden specialist. Author of Lost Gardens of Sydney
Warwick Oakman	Third generation antiques dealer and architectural historian.
Mary Ramsay	Farmer & owner of too many heritage buildings. Tasmanian Farmers and Graziers Association representative on the Tasmanian Heritage Council.
Chris Tassell	Managing Director, National Trust of Australia (Tasmania).
David Young	Heritage consultant -- materials conservation, training (Uni of Canberra)

Admission: $60 ($40 National Trust Members).

Bookings essential to: National Trust State Office on 03 6344 6233. Contact: Linda Clark: 03 6344 6233