

Australia ICOMOS

Celebrating 40 years since the signing of the World Heritage Convention, AICOMOS announces the

VICTORIAN WORLD HERITAGE FORUM

Tuesday 16 October 6PM-9PM

In the welcoming atmosphere of the Bella Union Theatre at Trades Hall

Preceded by a tour of Trades Hall at 5pm

COST: $ 20.00 (ICOMOS Members) ♦ $ 25.00 (Non Members) ♦ Pay at the door

Where are Victoria's /Australia's next cultural world heritage sites?

The speakers and the discussion may also address the following questions, being asked in forums in all States, with the results to be transmitted to the National Symposium in Sydney on 16 November:

1. THE INTERNATIONAL QUESTION:

As it reaches its 40th Anniversary, is the UNESCO Convention Concerning the Protection of the World Cultural and Natural Heritage still a convention for conservation? If it isn't, what is it now a convention for?

2. THE NATIONAL QUESTION:

If we look back on the last 40 years, what has Australia contributed to the international endeavour of World Heritage? What could Australia offer the world in the next 10 years?

3. THE COMMUNITY QUESTION:

Does the World Heritage Convention support communities in their endeavour to protect their heritage? Does the Convention and its operations provide benefits for communities?
