

Bodossaki Foundation Athens Scholarship

The University of Kent and the Athens University of Economics and Business are pleased to announce four scholarships funded by the Bodossaki Foundation to study on the MA in Heritage Management at Elefsina, an Athenian suburb, beginning in September 2018. The Bodossaki Foundation was established in 1972 and is one of the most respected privately owned public-benefit organizations in Greece.

The MA in Heritage Management, a unique combination of Heritage and Business, has been consistently rated as one of the top 10 Arts and Culture Management MA's internationally.

Criteria

- It is open only to applicants intending to study full-time.
- UK, EU and overseas fee paying students are all eligible.
- A first or upper-second class honours degree in a relevant subject or equivalent.
- The tuition fee for the programme from home/EU and overseas students is €7,500.
- The scholarship is a 50% reduction of tuition fees for the programme, equivalent to €3,750.

How to apply

- Candidates should make an application to study on the MA in Heritage Management: <https://www.kent.ac.uk/courses/postgraduate/how-to-apply/#online>
- You must state you intend to apply for the scholarship as part of your application.
- The application deadline is 1 July 2018 or until all four scholarships have been awarded.

If you have any queries, please email the Heritage Management office in Elefsina at: heritage@aueb.gr