

Nilpena Visitor Centre Source: Department for Environment

FLINDERS RANGES FIELD TRIP & CLCR NSC 2023 AGM JUNE 16th to JUNE 19th

The bus departs Adelaide 10am Friday June 16th and returns by 6pm Monday June 19th.

Please choose from the options below:

- | | |
|--|---------|
| 1. Symposium + Nilpena Tour (including platter lunch) | $250pp |
| 2. Symposium + accommodation + Nilpena Tour | $500pp |
| 3. Symposium + accommodation + Nilpena Tour + return bus | $750pp |

Transfers from interstate and meals will be on top of the above. The full program is open to all AICOMOS members and partners and the deadline for payment in full is COB Friday May 26th.

Please note that numbers will be capped at 24 and we already have 18 tentatively registered. Please email stephaniejohnston@adam.com.au to confirm payment for your preferred option.

The AGM and associated symposium will be held at the Blinman Town Hall on Saturday 17th June and there will be opportunities to contribute to the presentations and discussions. Three nights (mostly twin share) accommodation is offered in the shearing quarters of the nearby pastoral stations (Angorichina, Little Paddock and Oratunga). The bus will be available to ferry us around, and we have organised a field trip to the Nilpena Ediacaran fossil site on the Sunday <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=koeS5H3cNI>
Tours of the Blinman Copper Mine will also be available <https://heritageblinmanmine.com.au/>.

There will be no opportunity to Zoom in, so don't miss this once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to experience one of Australia's exceptional cultural landscapes!

Stephanie Johnston and Dr Elisa Palazzo

Co-convenors AICOMOS National Scientific Committee on Cultural Landscapes and Cultural Routes