

Horticulturalist – Camden Park Historic Gardens, Camden NSW

Unique, part time gardening position overseeing historical sections of the Camden Park Garden

We are seeking an experienced horticulturalist for a new flexible, part time role (approx 2 days per week). This is an active, hands on role, helping with all gardening related aspects of the restoration and ongoing maintenance of an important historic garden.

The Camden Park Garden, near Camden NSW, was established in 1820 and contains an important collection of plants. In recent years significant restoration work has been undertaken, additional experience and professionalism is now required to consolidate these achievements.

Broad experience in gardening, familiarity with plant breeding and a practical approach are the key skills required for this position. The Camden Park Garden has an active volunteer group and an important part of the role will be liaison and support of this group.

The role covers:

- General garden maintenance including established garden beds & regeneration areas
- Maintenance of historical trees & shrubs
- Maintenance of heritage fruit trees & special plant collections (eg. camellias)
- Care & maintenance of plants located in historic green houses and bush house
- Propagation
- Weed control

Remuneration will be on an hourly basis with rate & timing negotiable.
