A Dazzling Range of Styles: The Public Architecture of the New Deal in the United States

Friday 11 November 2011 7:15 for 7:30 p.m.
Australian Institute of Architects NSW
Auditorium at Tusculum, 3 Manning Street, POTTS POINT

Dr. Gray Brechin is a frequent radio and television guest and a popular public speaker. He is currently a visiting scholar in the University of California Berkeley Department of Geography and founder and project scholar of California's Living New Deal Project upon which he will speak.

He is an historical geographer and author whose chief interests are the state of California, the environmental impact of cities upon their hinterlands, and the invisible landscape of New Deal public works.

He received a B.A. in history and geography, a M.A. in art history, and a Ph.D. in geography from the University of California at Berkeley with which he has been closely associated for over forty years.

Entry Fees: C20th & AIA Members $15:00 pp, Non Members $20.00 pp. Dr. Brechin's presentation will be followed as is our practice by a light supper arranged by the Management Committee.
