MAP Accreditation

Duldig Studio has successfully completed the Museum Accreditation Program run by Museums Australia (Victoria) in 2015. On August 6, the certificate of accreditation was presented by Martin Foley, Minister for Creative Industries at the National Gallery of Victoria. It was a lovely evening celebrating successes and achievements of the Victorian museum, gallery and collection sector.

National Library of Australia Grant

Duldig Studio has just received the National Library of Australia grant for a formal and detailed assessment of our nationally significant collection. This valuable grant will enable us to articulate the depth and cultural heritage values of the collection in order to inform our future goals related to preservation, conservation and exhibition programming.

The Duldig Studio is a not-for-profit public museum and art gallery. MAP accredited museum.

The Duldig Studio thanks the City of Stonnington, Copland Foundation, Telstra Foundation, Besen Family Foundation and Bendigo Bank for their sponsorships.

the Jewish Museum of Australia (JMA).

Duldig Studio members can visit JMA's From 'Aliens' to Australians – Remembering Dunera 75 Years On exhibition on a concessional entry rate.

This exhibition explores the cultural life of the Jewish “enemy aliens” while they were interned in camps, for two to five years, in rural NSW and Victoria. It also examines the interns' experiences and personal stories after their release, including how many went on to contribute to the Allied war effort in the 8th Employment Company.

JMA members will be charged concessional entry fee when they visit Art Behind the Wire at Duldig Studio!

Curator's Talk at JMA

As part of the JMA partnership, our Public Programs Officer and co-curator of the Art Behind the Wire exhibition, Melinda Mockridge, will be giving a curator's talk on the Duldig family's time in internment at Tatura and Karl's involved in the 8th Employment Company of the Australia Army.
