EXHIBITION CLOSING SOON

The exhibition SLAWA modernist art + design: Art, innovation and reinvention is in its final months - discover the world of a Viennese modernist in Melbourne.

An exhibition by the Austrian-Australian artist, Slawa Horowitz-Duldig (1901-1975). Presenting her early graphic works and sculptures, remarkable survivors of war and dislocation, the exhibition gives insight into Viennese art of the early modernist period. Follow SLAWA's story – told through her drawings, sculptures, fashion and furniture design, and her ingenious invention of the folding umbrella.

Visit: Tuesday and Thursday, 1-3pm.

Guided tour at 2pm. Admission fees apply.
