UPCOMING EVENTS

MYSTERIOUS MASKS - SCHOOL HOLIDAY PROGRAM

Image: Glazed ceramic mask by Karl Duldig (1902 – 1986)

We are running three workshops - they are structured so that children can attend just one workshop, or multiple workshops to enable them to develop their clay building techniques.

Duldig Studio is thrilled to announce our new children's program: Mysterious Masks. Based on the amazing collection of Karl Duldig's clay masks, most of which you'll see displayed throughout the house and garden studio, sculptor in residence, Stefan Damschke will guide children to make their own mask creations.

Dates:

Wed 25 September, 10.30am - 12.00pm

Wed 2 October, 10.30am - 12.00pm

Thurs 3 October, 2.00pm - 3.30pm

Workshop costs:

$45 per child for one workshop

$40 per day for any additional workshop/s

$40 per day for additional siblings

attending on the same day

Coming up in October! Details to be announced shortly.
FREE event

The Annual Duldig Lecture will be held at The University of Melbourne in October. Dr Jane Eckett, postdoctoral researcher and teaching assistant in art history at the University of Melbourne will present a keynote address about artist estates and modernist sculpture.

MIRKA MORA: A LIFE MAKING ART with guest speaker Sabine Cotte

Thursday 26 September, 6 - 8pm

Duldig Studio's conservation consultant, Dr Sabine Cotte, will present a talk on her recently published book Mirka Mora: A Life of Making Art. Sabine came to know Mirka Mora when the National Trust commissioned her to conserve Mora's mural, located at Flinders Street Station. After working closely together to return the mural back to its original splendour, the two became friends.

An opportunity to hear Sabine's unique insights into Mirka's art, public commissions and artistic networks including the Duldig family.

Wine and cheese will be served after the presentation.

Cost: $12 Adult, $10 Concession, FREE for Duldig Friends and Supporters.

VISIT TO JUSTIN ART HOUSE MUSEUM

On Tuesday 27 August Duldig Founder and Patron Eva de Jong-Duldig, together with Justin Art House Museum Founders Charles and Leah Justin, organised a tour and private lecture at JAHM for staff, board members, volunteers and friends of the Duldig Studio. Charles presented a fascinating lecture on key house museums across the globe based on his and Leah's recent travels. The presentation offered a wonderful perspective on just how unique house museums like JAHM and the Duldig Studio really are. The group was then guided to Leah and Charles' residence on the top floor of the museum to continue the tour of contemporary art on display. Discussions have started about future collaborations between the two museums – watch this space!

ACTIVITY HIGHLIGHT

Duldig Studio board member Janine Kibblewhite was delighted to receive this luscious bespoke scarf from Materialbyproduct, which was donated by Melbourne fashion designer Susan Dimasi and auctioned at our Brilliant Brolly fundraising event. The scarf depicts a collage of several of our Brilliant Brolly competition entries and was printed in the Netherlands on 100% silk. Janine was part of the team that organised the Brilliant Brolly competition and is thrilled to have the scarf as a memento of all the support and enthusiasm Duldig Studio received from the community, local businesses and artists alike.

Visit us during opening hours or arrange for a Group Tour - available for 6 or more visitors are available on any weekday. Advance booking is required. Admission is $20 a person (includes tea or coffee, and Viennese cake).
