

GOULBURN REGIONAL TOUR 2013

GOULBURN, TARALGA, CROOKWELL & BINDA – Join us on the Labor Day Long Weekend – Saturday 5th to Monday 7th October

For a large part of the twentieth century, Goulburn was the fourth largest city in the state of New South Wales. And whilst its population remained relatively static, at just over 10,000 during the first decade of the century, it could boast some 15,200 inhabitants by the end of the 1930s.

Roy Lumby will be supported by respected Heritage Landscape Specialist Stuart Read during the weekend bringing his knowledge & expertise to the events.

We will be enjoying the best restaurants in town including The Roses Café for Breakfasts & Lunches, The Fireside Inn, The Goulburn Workers Club for Dinners, & The Paragon Café for Monday Lunch. We have block bookings at The Lilac Motor Inn where you can independently book & pay for whichever period of stay that you wish.

We do advise that the Friday 4th of October is an issue for the Motor Inn as they are actually fully booked that night.

Saturday night 5th & Sunday night 6th are of course covered by our block booking.

A P A C K E D I T I N E R A R Y

• Saturday 5th in GOULBURN, after Breakfast at The Roses

Café we will visit:

The splendid Courthouse, walk around St Saviours Anglican Cathedral and look at numerous fine buildings by that most prolific and accomplished local architect Edmund Cooper Manfred.

There will be a special presentation by Dr Roy Lumby, the Society's President, at the Former Town Hall entitled "Modernism in the Bush" in the early evening.

• On Sunday 6th we will travel by Coach to:

TARALGA: Investigate significant twentieth century items in this charming village, only

Page 2 >>

Don't miss out, make sure you book now.

Why not come along just on the Sunday bus tour – we still have some seats available. For all bookings and more details, visit:

www.twentieth.eventbrite.com.au

45km from Goulburn including:

- A tour of the former Bank;
- Visit the stunning Catholic Church of Christ the King in Macarthur Street which dominates Taralga and its environs;
- The War Memorial Hall;

BINDA: Visit a garden acknowledged as one of the great country gardens of Australia. Begun in the 1920s, the garden was re-designed in 1949 by the pioneer of Australian landscape gardening, Edna Walling.

CROOKWELL: Tour of Main and nearby streets to look at the following just to name a few:

- The Crookwell Visitor Information Centre originally the local branch of the Bank of New South Wales;
- Commonwealth Bank;
- St Bartholomew's Church.

• On Monday 7th, BACK IN GOULBURN:

Where we will undertake a Main Street Walk taking in many twentieth century buildings, followed by a farewell luncheon at the enduring Paragon Café.

GOULBURN REGIONAL TOUR 2013

Don't miss out, make sure you book now.

Why not come along just on the Sunday bus tour – we still have some seats available. For all bookings and more details, visit:

www.twentieth.eventbrite.com.au