

HERITAGE-NEWS: May 2019

HERITAGE-NEWS is a monthly bulletin covering news, stories and events from Tasmania's historic heritage sector. It is produced by Heritage Tasmania and the Tasmanian Heritage Council. Feel free to forward this message to friends, families and colleagues; contribute an article, or provide us with your feedback. For more regular updates, visit the 'What's New' section of our website at www.heritage.tas.gov.au.

Industrial Adaptive Reuse wins Launceston Awards

The 2019 Launceston City Council Heritage Awards has showcased contemporary additions to residences, the restoration of a theatre to its art deco heyday, through to the adaptive reuse of a large and complex industrial site. For the story click here.

Waddamana Re-Opens After the Fires

Located in Tasmania's rugged Central Highlands, Waddamana is the site of Hydro Tasmania's first power station and the centrepiece of the Great Lake Power Scheme, which is entered on the Tasmanian Heritage Register. It has recently reopened after the summer fires. Why not visit the site to appreciate its history through the new displays.

Oatlands Centre for Heritage Rebuilds

As part of a reinvigoration of the Centre for Heritage Training School, one of Oatlands' earliest surviving buildings has been restored and converted for use as office and training rooms. For the full story click here.

Exploring the History of 'The Barracks'

Over a four year period, the Australian National University has been conducting a Historic Archaeology Field School at 'The Barracks', Triabunna, to help better understand the history of the site. For the full story click here.

EXHIBITION: Patrick Hall, If They Should Accidentally Fall

Friday 7 June 10:00 – Sunday 23 June 18:00pm | Narrynna, 103 Hampden Road Battery Point

Narrynna opens its doors again as an alternative exhibition space as part of Dark Mofo 2019. Patrick Hall's evocative installation work deals with confessions in the dark. Overseen by their preachers or prophets, congregation of bottled-up people whisper of longing and disappointment and the slow erosion of belief, the passing of time illuminated by the rhythm of a breath. For more information on this and other exhibitions head to Narrynna's website.

PRESENTATION: A Vexed History of Laughing Gas

Sunday 16 June 2019 | 2:00 | Meeting Room, QVMAG at Inveresk

'A vexed history of laughing gas: a cycle out of depression' will be delivered by Professor Paul Myles, Director, Department of Anaesthesiology and Perioperative Medicine at the Alfred Hospital and Monash University, Melbourne, and a National Health and Medical Research Council Practitioner Fellow, Australia. All welcome. Free for members, $4 for visitors. For more information contact the Launceston Historical Society.

Contributions: If you would like to contribute a story to E-NEWS, promote an upcoming heritage event, subscribe to or cancel your subscription please email enquiries@heritage.tas.gov.au We respect your privacy and do not pass on the personal details of subscribers.

PHONE: 1300 850 332 (LOCAL CALL COST) | FAX: (03) 6233 3186

EMAIL: ENQUIRIES@HERITAGE.TAS.GOV.AU | HTTP://WWW.HERITAGE.TAS.GOV.AU