

Australia ICOMOS Heritage Careers Night

*Considering a career in heritage, or new to the field?
Then come to Heritage Careers Night to learn more!*

An expert panel of heritage practitioners will explore employer expectations, pathways and issues for careers in heritage. Panel members are drawn from the public and private sectors. They bring with them a broad range of insights and experience reflecting the interdisciplinary nature of the field, including the built environment, planning, archaeology and Aboriginal heritage.

PANEL

Jim Gard'ner, Executive Director, Heritage Victoria
Roz Hansen, Roz Hansen Consulting Pty Ltd
Dr Ilya Berelov, Team Leader Cultural Heritage, Biosis Research
Bryn Davies, Senior Policy Officer, Native Title Unit, Victorian Department of Justice
Helen Lardner, Architect, Director HLCD Pty Ltd

The panel discussion will be followed by a chance to network over drinks.

Date Tuesday 19 June 2012
Time 5.30 for 6.00 pm start
Place Victorian Trades Hall, New Ballroom
54 Victoria Street (cnr Lygon Street), Carlton
Cost FREE; Drinks and nibbles will be provided
RSVP Essential! (for catering purposes)
Email austicomos@deakin.edu.au by COB Monday 11 June 2012
Who Should Come All participants of the Victorian Mentoring Program
Cultural heritage students and teachers
Others considering or beginning a career in heritage

Heritage Careers Night will launch the Australia ICOMOS Victorian Mentoring Program. Australia ICOMOS gratefully acknowledges the active support of its partners in launching the Victorian Mentoring Program – Deakin University, University of Melbourne, Monash University and the Heritage Council of Victoria.

Australia ICOMOS is the Australian Chapter of the International Council on Monuments and Sites, a key professional organisation for heritage practitioners across Australia.

msd
Melbourne
School of Design

B Envs
Bachelor of Environments

FACULTY OF ARCHITECTURE, BUILDING AND PLANNING
www.msd.unimelb.edu.au

HERITAGE
COUNCIL
VICTORIA
HERITAGE
COUNCIL
VICTORIA