Meetings and Symposium Canberra Australia

27-31 October 2013

The Australian members of the ICOMOS International Scientific Committees on Cultural Landscapes and Cultural Routes are hosting a heritage event consisting of official meetings, tours in Sydney and Canberra and a symposium. The event dovetails into the Australia ICOMOS national conference, Imagined Pasts Imagined Futures that commences the evening of 31 October 2013. ICOMOS NSC members and others are welcome to attend the symposium but please make contact as numbers are limited.

Cultural Landscapes and Cultural Routes in the 21st Century Issues and Opportunities

The topic covers issues of post disaster management, controlled and uncontrolled development on cultural landscapes and cultural routes, implementing historic urban landscape principles particularly cultural and green landscape systems, and the effects of globalization on the heritage values of cultural landscapes and cultural routes.

Papers from all regions are welcome. Papers can be 20 mins or shorter presentations.
