

LOCAL GOVERNMENT HERITAGE SEMINAR

Heritage advisors and planners at a recent seminar.

Friday 22 November 2013

Best Practice and new initiatives

A seminar for Victorian heritage advisors. The program is also open to local government planners in the afternoon. The seminar provides an opportunity for:

- Professional development for local government Heritage Advisors.
- Sharing information and practices and networking with your heritage colleagues
- Highlighting standards and models establishing best practice in local government heritage management.
- Learning about new initiatives, tools and policy.

This seminar follows the main Annual Workshop for Local Government planners and heritage advisors held in May 2013 in Ballarat.

Venue: Rooms 7 & 8, Training Rooms, Spring Street Conference Centre, Mezzanine Level, 1 Spring Street, Melbourne.

Arriving through the main entrance on Spring or Flinders Street, proceed to the top of the escalators. The Conference Centre will be in front of you.

Arriving through the Flinders Lane entrance to the building, you are on the correct level for the Conference Centre.

When: Friday 22 November 2013, 9:15am – 4:00pm

Bookings Essential: This day is for heritage advisors with the afternoon session also open to local government planners.
