

Old
Parliament
House

Celebrate the power of music at MoAD during Enlighten Festival 2019

Music and politics collide in 33 *Revolutions – a collaborative artwork celebrating songs of protest.

Let the transformative power of music guide you as you decorate recycled vinyl records with lyrics and symbols. Hang them from a height alongside thousands of others above King's Hall at Old Parliament House.

Watch the insta-worthy artwork grow, as this breath-taking installation comes to life with the spirit of revolution.

Be part of an artwork connecting thousands of voices from different generations, cultures and identities as you are entertained by a rocking soundtrack encompassing Joan Baez, Kendrick Lamar, Paul Kelly, John Williamson and everything in between.

Find out how you can join in on the artwork >

What's On at MoAD

Come on a spine tingling tour through Old Parliament House

Back by popular demand, the After Dark Ghost Hunters Tour is back for one last night this summer!

Join us for a torchlight tour illuminated with genuine stories of death, mysterious occurrences and dastardly deeds at Old Parliament House.

When: Thursday, 21 February 8.30pm - 9.15pm Plan your Sunday lunch >

Don't miss this spooky adventure >

Grab a bite to eat on Sundays at Hoi Polloi!

In need of some Sunday lunch inspiration? Come down and try the delicious new lunch pizza specials at Hoi Polloi.

Hoi Polloi is now serving up a range of delicious pizzas with complimentary compressed watermelon with fresh mint and basil.

When: Every Sunday, 11.30am - 2.30pm.

Talking Democracy: Trust the People

Twenty years on from Australia's republic referendum has public thinking changed?

Join Michael Cooney (National Director, Australian Republic Movement) and Josh Manuatu (National Councillor of the Australian Monarchist League) as they debate the pros and cons of an Australian republic.

When: 8 February 5.00pm–6.30pm

Where: Private Dining Room 1, Old Parliament House. Entry is via pedestrian bridges, Queen Victoria Terrace.

Free entry, but spots are limited so booking is essential.

Trust the people is presented as part of Democracy 2025's Talking Democracy series.

Democracy 2025 is a bold new initiative of MoAD and the University of Canberra's Institute for Governance and Policy Analysis.

Join the conversation >

From the blog

Should Australia remain crowned or not?

The idea of Australia as a republic is one that constantly pops up.

21 years ago, in February 1998, a Constitutional Convention was held at Old Parliament House, to debate whether Australia should become a republic.

This debate was the catalyst for the first ever Australian Republic Referendum in 1999.

Read more about the 1998 Constitutional Convention >

Pop into the Little Corner Shop

Are you looking for some last minute back to school supplies?

Pop into the Little Corner Shop at MoAD to see our range of fun stationary.

One item, recently added to the shop, is a wooden pencil box printed with a historic image of Old Parliament House.

Find out more out the shop ›

Love MoAD?

Donate to the museum to help us create powerful exhibitions, participative experiences and transformative education programs.

Support us ›

Join Our Online Community

Join our online community to get updates as they happen, see behind-the-scenes photos of what's been happening at the museum and chat with us directly.

Like us on Facebook

Follow us on Instagram

Follow us on Twitter

Open daily 9 am – 5 pm

Old
Parliament
House

18 King George Terrace, Parkes ACT 2600,
Australia

PO Box 3934, Manuka ACT 2603

02 6270 8222

website@moadoph.gov.au