

PV

Polyphonic Voices

In their 2015 season

Poles Apart

conducted by Michael Fulcher

Motets in the Gaol

Works by European and other International masters

7:30pm Saturday 24 October 2015
Old Melbourne Gaol
377 Russell St, Melbourne

“For my part I know nothing with any certainty, but the sight of the stars makes me dream.”

Vincent Van Gogh

www.polyphonicvoices.com

Motets in the Gaol

The aged bluestone walls of the Old Melbourne Gaol once held Australia's most notable criminals. Their eerie interior provides a thrilling space to perform the group's favourite motets from around the world.

From Allegri's anguished Miserere to Whitacre's sublime Saint Chappelle, Polyphonic Voices weaves together a programme inspired by the great masters of the choral tradition.

Composers include Allegri, Bach, Brahms, Bruckner, Philips, Łukaszewski, Messiaen & Whitacre.

Tickets: $40 General Admission $10 Cell Experience

BYO cushion. You will experience the concert from inside a prison cell. Please note this will be an aural experience (limited/no visual of the choir).

www.polyphonicvoices.com

"In the hands of a master, light and shade is one of the great qualities of art."

John Sloan

From the 2015 season
Poles Apart