

CULTURAL HERITAGE & MUSEUM STUDIES AT DEAKIN UNIVERSITY INVITE YOU TO A PRIVATE SCREENING OF 3-HOUR FILM EVENT:

NATIONAL GALLERY

Frederick Wiseman's NATIONAL GALLERY takes the audience behind the scenes of a London institution, on a journey to the heart of a museum inhabited by masterpieces of Western art from the Middle Ages to the 19th Century. NATIONAL GALLERY is the portrait of a place, its way of working and relations with the world, its staff and public, and its paintings. In a perpetual and dizzying game of mirrors, film watches painting watches film. <http://zipporah.com/films/43>

FRIDAY 17 APRIL, 6 FOR 6.30-9.30PM: NOVA CINEMA,
CARLTON. $25 ENTRY (INCL CANAPES); STUDENTS &
ALUMNI $20 (INCL CANAPES) + DONATION!

"Mr. Wiseman's touch is deft but light here, and the experience of watching 'National Gallery' is pleasurable and immersive because he's a wonderful storyteller. It is also unexpectedly moving. Because his other great theme is how art speaks to us, one he brilliantly expresses in the relay of gazes that finds us looking at museum-goers looking at portraits that look right back — at artists, art lovers and moviegoers — even as Mr. Wiseman, that sly old master, looks at all of us in turn. . . . Magnificent . . . The movie is at once specific and general, fascinating in its pinpoint detail and transporting in its cosmic reach. It's about art and process, money and mystery. . . (a) privileged three-hour virtual tour of the museum."

—Manohla Dargis, New York Times

This private screening is a fund-raising event for the Roslyn Lawry Award, the annual prize in Deakin University's Cultural Heritage & Museum Studies program. You will be invited to add a donation to the ticket price on the booking system. Alumni, friends, museum and heritage people – all welcome!
