Visit Us During Open House Melbourne Weekend

Open House Melbourne weekend is coming up!

Duldig Studio is part of this year's exciting program and we will run 4 tours on 30 and 31 July 2016 at 12 and 2 pm. The guided tour includes a viewing of one of the new videos developed this year, Reshaping the World – Karl Duldig, a European Modernist in Australia. For further information and bookings, visit Open House Melbourne's website. Hurry and don't miss out!

Open House Melbourne is the result of an initiative by the Committee for Melbourne, Future Focus Group, and is part of the Open House Worldwide Network, founded by Open House London. Open House Melbourne aims at connecting people with good design and architecture in the city. Their program invites people to explore houses, buildings, infrastructure and landscapes that illustrate rich social and cultural history whilst offering insights into the future of our cities.

GLOW Festival: Viennese Nights

We are excited to finally reveal the night events we alluded to previously!

As part of the City of Stonnington's 2016 Glow Winter Arts Festival, Duldig Studio will be running two special events. GLOW Festival celebrates the artistic endeavours of the Stonnington communities and promotes cultural engagement with art lovers of all ages.
