

News on What's Happening at Duldig Studio

MAGNA 2016 Finalist

Duldig Studio was a Finalist in the 2016 Museums and Galleries National Awards (MAGNA) in the Level 1 Interpretation, Learning & Audience Engagement category. MAGNA recognises excellent work nationally in the categories of exhibition, public programs and sustainability projects. We were shortlisted based on our reinterpretation project through our Copland Foundation grant, redevelopment of our website by in-kind support from Deloitte Digital, our mini-documentaries produced by imaginACTION and our education and public program initiatives. We are proud to be shortlisted alongside esteemed institutions.

Congratulations to the winners Museum Victoria and Princes Hill Primary School, and to the highly commended projects by the National Portrait Gallery of Australia, the Tasmanian Archive and Heritage Office and the Museum of Australian Democracy at Old Parliament House.

Seeking New Board Members

Duldig Studio is strengthening the membership of the Board of Management in 2016/17 and looking for at least two new members to be nominated at our Annual General Meeting on 18 October 2016. If you are interested in actively supporting the work of the Duldig Studio on a dynamic Arts Board, please email your application and current CV to Antony de Jong, President at antony@duldig.org.au by 30 June 2016.

Open Saturday and Dogs at Duldig

Duldig Studio is open on the second Saturday of every month. On Saturday 11 June, we will be open from 1.00 to 3.00pm. See the award winning Art Behind the Wire exhibition, take a guided tour of the museum at 2pm or do clay and drawing activities in the Sculpture Garden, for both kids and grown-ups!

Dog-minding available! Walk your dog to the Duldig Studio. We have a safe place to tie and water your dog while you enjoy art!

Duldig Studio at Roola Boola Children's Arts Festival

As part of City of Stonnington's *Roola Boola Children's Arts Festival*, we are offering our popular clay sculpture and paper mask-making art classes during the upcoming school holidays. Keep your children busy with art activities and explore their artistic talents. Previous participants are welcome to join us again to hone in their skills and create more artworks!

Learn clay sculpture and paper mask-making with our Sculptor-in-Residence and Curator, Stefan Damschke. Children are encouraged to use their imagination and be inspired by our Studio and Karl Duldig's sculptures.

Make clay sculptures in the workshops run by a professional sculptor where children can learn clay techniques and how to build their own fantastic sculptures! They'll also be working in a real sculptor's studio. All materials supplied. Firing available at additional cost.

3-Day Clay Sculpture Workshops: 29, 30 June and 1 July 2016, 10.30am to 12pm. $105 for 3 classes. Suitable for ages 7–12 years old.

News Further Afield

Yeo Mang Thong, 'The story of the Bronze Sculpture: Malay Boy – Memory of Sculptor Karl Duldig', Lianhe Zaobao, 25 March 2016, p. 3.

Karl Duldig's time in Singapore has been written recently in Singapore's Chinese newspaper, Lianhe Zaobao, by Yeo Mang Thong, a local historian. In the article published on 25 March 2016, Mr Yeo wrote about the friendship of Karl with the famous Chinese writer Yuda Fu when they met in 1940. Eva de Jong-Duldig, our Founder and Patron, met Mr Yeo in Singapore when she attended the opening of the National Gallery Singapore last year. You can read about that story in our previous newsletter.
