

GALLIPOLI TO CONISTON

Welcome black boys, 2009 by Adam Hill, Acrylic on canvas 95 x140cm Private collection (image courtesy the artist)

REMEMBERING FRONTIERS

Marking the 86th Anniversary of the Coniston Massacre (NT)

Featuring artists, activists & academics as well as the screening of the award winning documentary

'CONISTON!'

Thursday 28th & Friday 29th August 2014

Cosmopolitan Civil Societies Conference Room
Level 3, Mary Ann House, 645 Harris Street
University Technology Sydney

Opening Session

9.30AM Thursday 28th August 2014

Acknowledgement of Country - Pastor Ray Minniecon (Kinchela Boys Home Committee)

Sessions include:

Politics of commemorations with Prof. Gary Foley (University of Melbourne) & Francis Jupurrulla Kelly (Director of 'Coniston' documentary, Chair of Pintubi Anmatjere Warlpiri Media Yuendumu, NT).

Indians, Australians & 'colonial' armies

with Sekhar Bandyopadhyay (Vic Uni, NZ), Devleena Ghosh (UTS) and Sikh community representatives

ANZAC commemoration

with Andrew Jakubowicz + Ahmet İcduygu (UTS), Meredith Walker (Heritage activist), Turkish community representatives

Frontiers, Nationalism and Resistance with Robyne Bancroft (Indigenous Archaeological Association, Bundjalung/Thungatti nation) and Ray Kerkhove (Chair of Q-Earth, Historian)

Women & war

with Heather Goodall (UTS), Meredith Burgmann (Women Against Rape in War) & Lucy Fiske (UTS).

Exhibiting Artists:

Blak Douglas (Dhungatti Artist)
Amala Groom (Wiradjuri Artist)
Vedat Acikalin (Turkish photo-journalist)

For full program details or for more information, please contact Heather.Goodall@uts.edu.au