Session 2	Sites and Finds – How Do We Understand Them?
09:55 – 10:15	Keynote Presentation: Sites Revisited In this keynote address, Dr Casey will revisit sites that she has worked on which have had a significant role in her career and discuss how they still influences her interpretation of sites today.	Mary Casey (Casey & Lowe Pty Ltd)
10:15 – 10:35	Presentation & Discussion: Relics and their Regulation This session will explore how 'relics' are defined in the Heritage Act, apparent changes in how they are being managed and regulated and how clients are dealing with compliance. Essentially, the presenter has noted a marked change in the application of the definition, and relics appear to be 'artefacts,' in a similar vein to how Aboriginal archaeology and 'objects' are regulated. The presentation will explore some interesting project examples which illustrate the confusion to be resolved.	Abi Cryerhall (GML Heritage)
