

International Day on MONUMENTS AND SITES

the heritage of commemoration

Australia ICOMOS with the National Trust of Australia (NSW)

THURSDAY 10 APRIL 2014

4pm - 7.30pm

Three speakers will explore the theme of "the heritage of commemoration"

David Mason (NSW Government Architect's Office)

Conservation of War Memorials in NSW

War Memorials present a variety of conservation challenges. In 2013, NSW Public Works prepared an information pack on caring for the State's war memorials. This presentation highlights the key messages for local authorities and local custodians and managers.

Chris Betteridge (MUSEcape)

The Remembrance Driveway - a Living Memorial celebrates its Diamond Jubilee.

The advent of living memorials rather than monuments, and the creation of the Remembrance Driveway between Sydney and Canberra, its development, change, decline and revival.

Glenn Lockitch (Glenn Lockitch Photography)

Photojournalism and heritage

The role of photojournalism in recording communities in their significant sites.

Registration includes entry to

Reality in Flames: modern Australian art & the Second World War

at the S. H. Ervin Gallery | An Australian War Memorial travelling exhibition.

VENUE: The National Trust of Australia, Upper Fort Street, Observatory Hill, Sydney (Annie Wyatt Room) Free Parking on Site

TIME: 4.00 pm - 5.00 pm EXHIBITION ENTRY AND COMMENTARY

5.00 pm - 6.00 pm REFRESHMENTS

6.00 pm - 7.30 pm TALKS

COST: ICOMOS & National Trust Members $15 | Non-members $20 | Pay on arrival.

RSVP: 8 April 2013 to aweinman@nationaltrust.com.au | Anne Weinman (02) 9258 0159