

The Donald Horne Institute for Cultural Heritage Research Cluster Symposium

International Debates in Heritage Conservation

Thursday 2 September 2010 5.00-7.30pm

Guest Speakers

Adjunct Professor Sheridan Burke and Meredith Walker

Sheridan Burke, Adjunct Professor at UC and Partner of Godden Mackay Logan Heritage Consultants, is a conservation planner with thirty years experience in cultural resource management. Sheridan was formerly the Senior Curator, Manager Property Operations, at the Historic Houses Trust of NSW and a senior policy specialist with the Heritage Council of NSW. Sheridan has been the international vice president of ICOMOS and acts as an expert advisor to the World Heritage Centre of UNESCO. She is president of the ICOMOS International Scientific Committee on Twentieth Century Heritage.

Meredith Walker is not only one of Australia's most experienced and respected heritage consultants, specialising in local government heritage studies, place museums and professional practice standards; she is also a role model demonstrating how professionals can empower community volunteers and develop their skills. As a member and past President of Australia ICOMOS she was actively involved in preparing and revising The Burra Charter and was co-author of two editions of The Illustrated Burra Charter. These documents are used widely throughout Australia and overseas.

Please join us to celebrate the second anniversary of the Institute and to welcome new member of staff, Dr Liz Bonshek.
