

The Trust Talks: Opening the doors for innovation, collaboration and celebration of our heritage.

The Trust Talks: Managing the Heritage of Wounded Places

Heritage places represent all spectrums of our society, including the not so palatable aspects. Gaols, detention centres, asylums and places of conflict all demonstrate our culture's Wounded Heritage. These wounded places present unique challenges to those who manage their interpretation, access and conservation. Each place manager approaches this challenge differently. Join us for an evening of talks by renowned Australian heritage managers who delve into this topic using case studies of Ned Kelly's Glenrowan Inn and Melbourne's Pentridge Prison.

Jane Alexander - Heritage Advocacy Advisor, The National Trust of Australia (Queensland)

Jane is a built heritage specialist and historical archaeologist. She specialises in heritage advocacy and has a professional interest in defence and military heritage – she was previously the Australian Expert representative on the ICOMOS International Scientific Committee IcoFORT. Jane was the Chair of the National Trust (NSW) Industrial Heritage Committee and was on the Executive of Australia ICOMOS.

Dr Susan McIntyre-Tamwoy – International cultural heritage consultant, Extent Heritage

Dr Susan McIntyre-Tamwoy is an international cultural heritage consultant with 30 years' experience. Her experience includes indigenous and non-indigenous archaeological projects and heritage planning. She is a former president of Australia ICOMOS and she has also served as President of the Australian Association of Consulting Archaeologists. Susan, as an expert advisor through ICOMOS to the World Heritage Centre of UNESCO has also consulted to UNESCO in relation to Intangible Cultural Heritage.

Libby Blamey – Historian, Lovell Chen Architects

Libby Blamey is a Senior Associate and historian at Lovell Chen. Libby previously worked at Heritage Victoria, assessing places for the Victorian Heritage Register. Her work at Lovell Chen includes the preparation of conservation management plans for a wide variety of places in Victoria and interstate, and undertaking heritage assessments, municipal heritage studies and oral histories.

Date: Thursday 15th March 2018

Time: 5pm for 5.30pm start (finish 7.30pm)

Location: Boggo Road Gaol
21 Boggo Road, (Off Annerley Road) Dutton Park

Cost: National Trust Members – Free (NB: Limit of 4 people per corporate member)
$25 for non-members

The evening will include the opportunity to network with friends and colleagues, drinks and light canapes on arrival, the debate, and a National Trust gift bag, optional 30 minute staged tour of the gaol can be separately booked. This is an event not to be missed!

Optional Tours: Boggo Road Gaol will present an optional tour of the gaol before the Trust Talk. This is a chance to hear about the history of the gaol and understand what life was like for inmates. The tour will be at 5pm and run for half an hour for a special price of $11.50 for The Trust Talks attendees. Book Now at - <https://goo.gl/JoKCo5>

Sponsors: This event is generously sponsored by Extent Heritage Advisors and Boggo Road Gaol

Visit <https://goo.gl/rQ8H3h> to book

 NATIONAL TRUST