

victorian museums and galleries forum

Tuesday 20 July 2021

The Victorian Museums and Galleries Forum is a one-day event dedicated to discussing current topics in the museum and gallery sector. This years' theme is on 'Digital Literacy – Audience Engagement and the Visitor Experience.' The forum will take place on Tuesday 20 July 2021 at ACMI and online.

TICKETS AVAILABLE AT: AMAGAVIC.ORG.AU/FORUM

Speakers (left to right from the top):

- Jane Finnis, Culture24, UK.
- Seb Chan, Chief Experience Officer, ACMI.
- Lucie Paterson, Head of Experience, Product & Digital, ACMI.
- Natalie Carfora, Exhibitions Coordinator, MOD.
- Jo Coldwell-Neilson, Associate Dean Teaching and Learning, Professor. Faculty of Science, Engineering and Built Environment, Deakin University.
- Indigo Holcombe-James, Postdoctoral Research Fellow. ARC Centre of Excellence for Automated Decision Making & Society, School of Media and Communication, RMIT University.
- Rachel Jones, Artist, Whitehorse City Council.
- Karina Lamb, Manager Libraries, Arts & Culture, Mornington Peninsula Shire.
- Brett Leavy, Bilbie Virtual Lab.

Cost: $150 members, $225 non-members, $50 online members, $80 online non-members

The Victorian Museums and Galleries Forum is supported by ACMI and Creative Victoria.

acmi

CREATIVE VICTORIA

AMaGA
Victoria