World Heritage and Human Rights

Lessons from the Asia-Pacific and global arena

Edited by Peter Bille Larsen, University of Lucerne, Switzerland

The World Heritage community is currently adopting policies to mainstream human rights as part of a wider sustainability agenda. This book provides both a review of World Heritage policy at the global level and case studies from Asia-Pacific (including Australia, South and Southeast Asia and China) of how human rights issues impact on both natural and cultural heritage sites and their management.
